Yes, Every Family Membership Application

EdVenture Children’s Museum is pleased to offer reduced cost of membership to families whose household income is less than $29,000 per year. The Yes, Every Family Membership is $19 and receives full member benefits.

The Yes, Every Family membership program qualifications are based on household income, not individual income. To apply for the Yes, Every Family Membership, the following document is required from all members of the household who are 18 years of age or older and who cannot be claimed as dependents on your most recent tax return. Any documentation provided must be from the current tax year.

To be eligible for the Yes, Every Family Membership, you must provide the following document(s):

- The first page of your current tax return
- If you do not file taxes, you may provide your current SNAP benefits award letter.

Please secure all information with this application and return by e-mail to Marjorie Mokrisky (mmokrisky@edventure.org) or to the front desk of any EdVenture Children’s Museum location. Incomplete applications without approved documentation will not be reviewed.

Your photo ID serves as your membership card and must be presented at check – in each time you visit the museum.

 All memberships are non-refundable and non-transferable. All memberships are valid for one full year from date of purchase. Qualified applicants are accepted on a first-come, first-served basis, and space is limited. Renewal is not guaranteed. We encourage families to only apply for this membership if they intend to use it more than 9 times per year. Members of the Yes, Every Family program will be contacted quarterly to participate in museum surveys and to provide feedback for their experiences with the program.*

This signature verifies that you have read and understand the terms and guidelines set forth on this form, as well as your consent to provide copies of necessary documentation.*

The Yes, Every Family Membership is made possible through the generosity of friends who support the Yes, Every Child program.
